CHANNELING YOUR (OR YOUR CHILD'S) INNER PICASSO

Four Fabulous Art Schools in Bergen

Send to a friend

Give your kid a glue stick and feathers and she'll sit for an hour straight and create something Lady Gaga would be proud to wear. And was that a slight eye roll and yawn we detected the last time mama drew her famous stick figure rainbow sketch for little Sally? Well, maybe it's time coloring at the kitchen table was stepped up a notch. So before your darling child starts using the wall (car, neighbors patio, their leg) as a canvas, enroll them in one of these top notch Bergen art programs.

Walk into the fantasy inspired studio of The Art Place where the walls (and bathroom!) have become an artist's canvas and watch your kid's imagination run wild. Instructors are energetic and creative and really connect with the kids. The school offers classes for all age groups in drawing, painting and crafts. New sessions, added for the fall semester, include jewelry making (not just beading) and sewing for the tween and teenage set- and mama can play too with new adult drawing classes offered on Monday mornings.
